POLICE STILL BAFFLED BY "HAND-CUFFED SUICIDE"

DEATH CAR — This is the late model Ford in which the body of Ross Orville Hall, San Francisco salesman, was found early Wednesday morning by a Daly City police officer. Shattered glass is where slug from .45 caliber revolver ricocheted off window, after entering Hall's head below the ear. Police think it was suicide, but are puzzled by the fact that Hall's hands were bound together with a tie. Note in back seat the open suit case, where possibly tie was kept.

ORDER DOG LEASH LAW; STATISTICS SHOW NEED

88 PERSONS WERE BITTEN IN '55; 213 ANIMALS DOA

Statistics strongly advocating passage of the proposed dog leash law were released today by Daly City Poundmaster Charles Maschinot.

A total of 88 dog bites have been reported to Mashchinot to date this year—an average of more 12 dog bites a month. Nine dog bites were reported to the pound during the month of July.

Another factor speaking for passage of the leash law is that 62 dogs have been hit and killed by cars so far this year, and nine dogs have died of suspected poisoning.

Of the total number of 101 dead dogs turned over to the pound this year, only 31 died of distemper, old age or other illness.

Animals handled by the pound so far this year through July comes to total of 1986, 1161 of which were destroyed and 213 of which were pronounced dead on arrival at the pound.

Last month 72 dogs, 162 cats and one duck were destroyed by the pound, according to Maschinot. Pronounced dead on arrival last month were 15 dogs, 21 cats, one pigeon and one parakeet.

Total animals handled through complaints last month reached 112 while total animals handled by the pound reached 394.

Again Deny Dance OK For Hilltop

Despite recommendation of approval by Police Chief Roland Petrocchi, the council for the second straight time rejected application of George Kirchhubel for a dance permit at the Hilltop Lodge, 22 Hillcrest drive.

The council, however, went along with Petrocchi on his recommendation for granting dance permit to the Starway, 5999 Mission street. Originally the council had refused application of the owner, Alan Morgan, because one of his bartenders had been involved in a felony. They told Morgan to re-apply after 90 days. The 90-day period will be up September 1, at which time the permit will go into effect.

Petrocchi appeared at the meeting, on orders of the council, who wanted to question him on his change of policy on the dance permits.

At First Denial

Petrocchi at first recommended denial of permit to the Lodge and the Starway.

The chief told the council Monday he had reversed his decision because, "I do not feel we will have too much trouble with these

COUNCIL TELLS BLUM TO DRAW UP ORDINANCE

City Attorney Frank Blum is now preparing a dog leash ordinance to be presented to the city council at their next open meeting on August 22. Blum was ordered to work up an ordinance following the city's receipt of eight letters for the ordinance, one asking a compromise, and one asking a "leash law for children."

A letter from Mrs. Lydia Talbott, 244 Westlake avenue, oldtime Daly City resident, brought roars of laughter from the council and audience at Monday night's meeting.

Mrs. Talbott's letter, which was addressed to "Dear Friends, Enemies, Dog Lovers, and Civilized People," went on to say that "after 30 years of cleaning up after dog lovers, I would like to retire."

"When we walk on the sidewalks of Daly City, we must be on the alert at all times, day and night, if we want to keep our shoes

Think SF Salesman Took Own Life But Ponder How

Daly City police today declared that all indications point to the fact that Ross Orville Hall, found shot through the head in his car on the Coast Highway Wednesday morning, committed suicide. Officers were unable to explain, however, why Hall had bound his hands with a necktie, left an empty wallet near the car and dropped his watch underneath the front seat.

Hall, 39, salesman for a San Francisco pottery firm, was found at 7:25 a.m. Wednesday morning by Phillip La Bruzzo, local patrolman. The thrice-married salesman was slumped in the passenger's side of the front seat with a .45 caliber bullet hole through the back of his head.

Daly City Inspector Bruno Conci based his theory of suicide on the following facts:

Powder Burns

1. Powder burns on Hall's hands and shoulder indicate that the dead man not only held the gun to shoot himself, but that the revolver was held in an awkward position to enable the salesman to shoot himself through the back of the head.

2. Mrs. Marian Hall, 1597 42nd avenue, the salesman's third wife, testified that Hall, while visiting her the night of his death, threatened suicide. Mrs. Hall, who was separated from her husband, told officers that Hall showed her the revolver and said he would shoot himself because he was a "failure."

After Hall left her home at 2:15 a.m., Mrs. Hall followed him outside and copied down the license

Councilman, Wife Still Hospitalized

Councilman Del Wilson remained hospitalized today after undergoing major surgery last week for an intestinal disorder complicated by an ulcer.

The local official has been confined to Veterans' hospital since July 29. Although his condition is reported improved, he is still weak from the operation and is expected to be hospitalized at least another week and probably longer.

DEL WILSON
. . . Undergoes Surgery

Wilson's condition was brought about, he said, as a result of an ulcer operation in 1946. At that time adhesions formed, causing a deformity in the intestinal tract.

MAYOR ASKS MEET ON CHARGE THAT INSURANCE HIGH

Mayor Joseph Verducci Monday night urged a special meeting with the North San Mateo County Insurance Agents association to discuss a letter from broker George Lagomarsino, who said the city was paying too much for its insurance.

Lagomarsino, in a letter read Monday night, said he could save the city $2320 over a five-year period.

The mayor related that, "The insurance agents association said they would handle our business so we turned it over to them. Now Lagomarsino says we're losing money. I'd like to meet with him and the association to discuss this."

Manager Howard Stites said he would arrange the meeting.

DISCONTINUE 56 BUS; PENINSULA LINE TO BEGIN IDENTICAL RUN

San Francisco's board of supervisors voted Monday to discontinue the No. 56 (Cemeteries) Municipal Railway Bus line as soon as the Peninsula line secures a franchise to take over the run.

The Peninsula Bus line will provide the same service at the same fare as now provided by the Muni, according to A. R. Linn, company consultant.

AGED WOMAN DIES FROM BURNS AT DALY CITY HOME

A 66-year-old woman burned to death early Monday morning in her home at 257 Citrus avenue. Dead is Mrs. Vinsen Moses.

The fire, which did little damage, apparently started when Mrs. Moses dropped a lighted cigarette on the overstuffed chair in which she was sitting. The dead woman's sister, Mrs. Carl Kellstrom, told police that Mrs. Moses sat throughout the night in the chair, sleeping and smoking periodically.

Mrs. Kellstrom, who lives in the upstairs apartment at the 257 Citrus avenue address, reported the fire when she heard Mrs. Moses' 80-year-old crippled hus-

Veto New Johnstone Trial

DC EMPLOYEES MAY FINANCE FIRED COP

The City Employees association, in an unofficial vote Thursday night, agreed to back David H. Johnstone, Jr., ousted police inspector. The decision, however, included two stipulations, according to Mrs. Juanita Guisti, association secretary.

Named as conditions were the legality of the association backing Johnstone's case and the practicality of the group obtaining funds to pay the former police inspector's court costs.

Contrary to other newspaper reports, action taken by the association was not official as only 25 of the 62-total membership were present at Thursday's meeting, Mrs. Guisti said. A two-third vote of the membership is required on any official action.

Meet With Council

The Johnstone matter is expected to come under discussion Monday night at the council meeting when City Employees Association President John Walsh and other representatives will meet with the council.

It was earlier thought that the association would write a letter to the council but was apparently decided today that the employees would voice their displeasure at the council's overrule of the civil service board of review at the Monday meeting.

Employees generally express the idea that they are not fighting for Johnstone as an individual but for Attorney John J. Fahey, representing fired Daly City cop Dave Johnstone, was turned down Monday night by the council in his request for a new hearing before the civil service board of review.

Johnstone was charged by City Manager Howard Stites with "association with known gamblers and failure to inform his superiors of all investigations."

The civil service board, basing their decision on transcript of three hearings, absolved Johnstone of all the charges and recommended unanimously that he be reinstated to his police inspector position with full back pay.

The council, in a 3-1 vote last week, reversed the board's recommendation and upheld their original decision to fire Johnstone.

Asks To Appear

Fahey's letter to the council Monday asked that Fahey be allowed to appear August 15 and move for a re-hearing of the council's action.

In his request to appear for rehearing motion, Fahey charged that the council had had insuffi-

Visitor Gets No Welcome From Owner

A bewildered Daly City man phoned local police Wednesday night when confronted with the problem of an unwanted visitor in his back yard.

Officers, also bewildered, recommended that Emery G. Uhas, 445 Knowles avenue, turn the visitor over to proper authorities.

Uhas thereupon called the Colma pet store and requested that they entertain the visiting chinchilla until the owner was located.

Almost the entire graveyard shift of the Daly City police department are reported to have applied for jobs with the county sheriff's office.

More pay and more "job security" is supposedly the reason for the mass exodus.

Having been properly reprimanded for the error by Mrs. ED CEREGHINO, I would like to amend the grievance with the announcement that her husband was not moved down to lower class ball when he was shipped off from the Sacramento Solons.

He was sent to Toronto in the International league, which is Class AAA ball, same as the PCL.

The Yankees, owners of bonus-baby Cereghino, made the maneuver so the Daly City lad would get more opportunity to pitch. He wasn't getting enough on-the-mound experience with the Solons.

I'm glad I made the error. It

August 29 "D-Day" For Daly City, Northgate On Incorporation And Annex

August 29 has been named D-day by both the Northgate incorporation faction and the Daly City council. On that date incorporation proponents will file petitions for a special election with the county board of supervisors, and the Daly City council will vote to accept the disputed strip annexation.

Both Daly City and the Northgate faction claim they have prior jurisdiction over the strip of land running parallel to Junipero Serra boulevard which, if annexed to Daly City, would bisect the proposed city of Northgate thus ruining plans for incorporation.

Authoritative sources say that the question of which faction has prior jurisdiction over the strip may come to court before settlement is reached.

Need Approval

According to City Attorney Frank Blum, the council can vote on the Conti-Bocci strip annexation following approval by other cities affected by the annexation.

Wednesday night Colma council voted to table Daly City's request for aproval until a special meeting next Wednesday. Blum and City Manager Howard Stites appeared to lobby for the approval while Northgate proponents were there to fight passage of the approval.

Next week's meeting of the Colma council will start at 7:30 at the Colma city hall.

It has not yet been determined when San Francisco will be approached.

South San Francisco has already granted their approval.

Attorney for the incorporation enthusiasts, Anthony Gaudio, said today that he will appear before the cities concerned to ask that they refuse to okay the controversial strip annexation. Gaudio's appearance before the South San Francisco council failed to bring

SF Cop, Expectant Mother Injured In Serra Head-On

An expectant mother and a San Francisco police officer were hospitalized Wednesday morning following a head-on auto collision on Junipero Serra boulevard north of Pierce street.

Yvonne Oldfield, 23, a bookkeeper at Western Auto store in Daly City, who lives at 942 7th avenue, San Bruno, was driving north on Junipero Serra boulevard when her car collided with the vehicle driven south on Junipero Serra by Phillip Edward Rodman, 33, of 722 45th avenue, San Francisco, a police officer in that city. A laundry truck, driven south on the boulevard by Roger Joseph Casanavou, 37, of 354 21st avenue, San Francisco, was also involved in the mishap but Casanavou was not injured.

Mrs. Oldfield, who is eight months pregnant, was rushed to Junipero Serra hospital, where 14 stitches were taken to close a severe cut on the forehead. She also suffered numerous cuts and bruises, but attendants at the hospital said the unborn baby's life was not endangered. She was transferred to Peninsula hospital. Her condition was not described as critical.

Rodman was also taken to the Serra hospital, where he was treated for concussion, cuts on the hand and a forehead gash that required 10 stitches. He was still hospitalized yesterday.

California Highway Patrol traffic officer Ken Williams said no citations have been issued as yet.

MASTER PLAN GROUP STUDIES COUNTY NEEDS

Formation of a master planning committee for San Mateo county consisting of developers, engineers, councilmen, supervisors, labor, and school representatives, was announced this week by the county board of supervisors.

A unique experiment in county development, the planning group will be broken down into the five supervisorial districts, with each supervisor heading his sub-committee.

Supervisor Thomas Callan Sr. of this ditrict has announced appointment of 12 of his committeemen: They include Councilmen Sanford Vickers and Mayor Joseph Verducci of this city; Councilmen Ray Obbotoni and Earl Taylor, Colma; Councilmen John Murphy and Clay Fisher of San Bruno; Councilmen Emilio Cortesi and Richard Gamlen, South San Francisco; Developers Cris McKeon and William F. Morton; labor representative D. Pitto of San Bruno; and San Bruno engineer Dana Russell.

Callan has yet to name a school figure to complete the study group for this district.

Henry Doelger, builder and developer of Westlake, was not selected to the local group, since he had been designated as representative of Alvin Hatch of Half Moon Bay, which has no builders and developers of its own.

William Werder, chairman of the county board, heads the group.

Each supervisorial district will plan on its own and will meet jointly with the other districts to aid the county planners in a workable master plan for this county.

Problems of hillside-lowland development are expected to rank high in the committee's discussion agenda.

SUMMER TORRENT—When a water main exploded near 90th and Sullivan street near Broadmoor Sunday, San Francisco water department workers toiled for nearly two hours to stop the flow that created a six-foot deep gulley across Sullivan street. Workmen spent nearly an hour trying to locate the cut-off valve in the swirling pool to stop the flow of water through the pipe. No homes were damaged, but residents in the middle of the block were unable to remove their cars from garages as water flowed onto Sullivan street. Water supply of the Serra Theater and Colonial restaurant was curtailed for several hours as workers repaired the broken main.

gave me an opportunity to learn that the Cereghinos are parents of a new baby girl, DIANE PATRICIA, born June 24 and weighing 8 lbs., 10 oz.

Janet and daughter may join Ed in Toronto soon.

Local golfer cop ART LINHARES swallowed the bachelor vow Wednesday.

He was married in Reno, Nev., that day to EDITH JAMES, 32 Hillcrest, an employee of Compton's in Westlake.

They returned last night.

DAVE JOHNSTONE, Daly City cop past-tense, has been laboring on a beer wagon route since the council's decision last week to uphold his firing.

A new resident of Daly City is S. HOLBROOK, 86 Frankfort street.

There's nothing unusual about that, except Mr. H. is connected with the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

So it's logical he would move to Daly City.

Political soundings: Mayor JOSEPH VERDUCCI and Councilman ED DENNIS will not run together on a ticket next April as was earlier planned.

And former city administrator DAN ANDERSEN will be on the ballot, in all probability.

Incidentally, Mayor Joe has been named to head the nominating committee of the peninsula division of the League of California Cities, so there's a possibility Daly City will have a representative in an executive position on that important organization.

Ire and irony: One of the coaches of the San Bruno team that protested the Westlake Rocket baseball club's win over them throwing the Rockets momentarily out of the Peninsula championship was DICK MILKOVICH, former Daly City Rec department worker who used to coach the Daly City teams in the county competition.

The VINCENT MORANS, 120 East Vista avenue, found a real surprise package when they cleaned out their basement in preparation for a move to Mountain View.

The windfall: Six tiny kittens, eyes still closed but stomachs adequately full and obviously in the best of care.

The mother cat's entranceway into the basement and her present whereabouts are still very much unknown.

their own "security."

The question of legality seems to evolve around another question—is the association backing of the Johnstone case a political action? Civil service bylaws exclude city employees from political acts.

Legal Opinions

When asked by THE RECORD, City Attorney Frank Blum said today that he could not give an opinion at the present time. Explaining that the answer lay in the interpretation of the word "political," Blum declared that it "might or might not" be legal.

Another opinion, given by Richard Kennedy, assistant personnel director of the county civil service commission, was that the city employees' decision is not illegal.

"To my knowledge, the action is not political," Kennedy declared today. "It is perfectly legal for the employees to offer financial assistance to one of their members."

The district attorney's office failed to comment, saying that they preferred to "stay out of city affairs."

City employees present at the Thursday night meeting also agreed to authorize a letter to the civil service board of review lauding them on their action in clearing Johnstone of all charges.

When Wilson returns to his home at 257 Hillside boulevard, he will still be required to observe complete rest, and probably will not be able to take part in regular council meetings for at least another month.

Meanwhile, Wilson's wife, Muriel, is still at Community hospital, where she has been since July 22, undergoing treatment for hepatitis of the liver.

Her release date is indefinite, Wilson said.

The Wilsons' two young children, Kristine and Mark, are being cared for by their grandmother while their parents are hospitalized.

two places. I don't think the Hilltop owners would jeopardize their position, they've got too much at stake."

Petrocchi maintained that through enforcement of the dance permit ordinance, his department could hold closer surveillance over the two local night spots.

He said that two months had elpased since he had recommended denial and that he felt the tavern owners now realized how important the dance permit was to them.

"Didn't you feel at first that they would be careful?" queried Mayor Joseph Verducci.

Business Falls Off

"In a sense," answered the chief, "But after two months they're more aware of how business has fallen off."

"Policing is the big problem," said Councilman Sanford Vickers. "I think while this trial is pending on the Hilltop we shouldn't recommend a dance permit. There's still a cloud over the place."

Liquor license of the local tavern was ordered revoked on April by the state board of equalization. Kirchhubel has since appealed the decision, but no disposition has been made on the case.

Councilman Michael De Berardi asked whether granting of dance permit to the Hilltop might be used as evidence of good repute in the appeal hearing before the state department of alcoholic beverage control.

City Attorney Frank Blum said it was probably immaterial, "but might be used" by the defense.

Could Put On Spot

"This could put us on the spot," De Bernardi continued. "If we find nothing wrong and grant a permit and then the state revokes the license."

Kirchhubel then confronted the council and, directing his remarks at Vickers, said he resented the remark that there was a "clique" on the board. "I don't think it's fair," Kirchhubel said. "I have no way of knowing when this appeal hearing will end. As far as there being a stigma on my place I think Chief Petrocchi knows me well enough to know better than that. I could put him (Petrocchi) on the spot in lot of things, but I don't want to." The bar owner then went on to elaborate on all the occasions where he had given law enforcement agencies a helping hand.

POINTING OUT the spot where he was bitten by a dog Friday morning is Jerome Guillori, 7, 251 Peoria street, while looking on sympathetically is his younger brother, David, 5. The boy told police that the unleashed dog who bit him had also attacked several other people. Both boys are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Guillori.

"I don't know what you want to do," Kirchhubel added. "You want to be the legislative, executive and judiciary."

People Will Wonder

Vickers answered that, "People are going to wonder if we grant you a dance permit and then the liquor control board revokes your license."

"Your attitude is not very nice," replied Kirchhubel.

The mayor then called for a vote on the two applications.

Vickers moved the Hilltop's request be rejected. Silence followed, and finally Verducci seconded the motion.

De Bernardi said he would like to move that the permit be granted on condition that it not be used as argument at the state liquor board's hearing.

When the mayor called for vote on the original motion, he and Vickers voted for rejection, while De Bernardi said he had to abstain, since he couldn't get his original motion.

Permit for the Starway was then approved unanimously.

Kirchhubel promised he would be back at a future meeting to file another application.

"Dogs Take Shifts"

The letter stated that "dogs take shifts to bark" and "bring flies."

"How close can the dog next door drop his dung by the window where I prepare my meals?" asked Mrs. Talbott's letter.

Following the reading of the letter by City Clerk B. C. Ross, Mayor Joseph J. Verducci suggested that the remainder of the letters be filed without public reading. The recommendation was accepted by the council.

Other letters received by the council included those from Mr. and Mrs. Herman Muellman, 1095 South Mayfair avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Einer Andresen, 281 Westlake avenue, who all said they favored a leash law.

"Keep Daly City from going to the dogs," was the request of R. A. Barth, 640 Southgate avenue.

Children To Benefit

Mr. and Mrs. F. Peters of 308 Westlake avenue asked that children be allowed a cleaner place to play than now dirtied by stray dogs.

"A restrictive law merely controls the element that gets out of hand," declared Mrs. Joseph Jacobs, 10 Edgemar street, in advocating the passage of the leash law.

Seven neighborhood women requested the ordinance and claimed they "have to use Hexol to get rid of the smells in front of their homes" from dirt tracked into their houses by visitors.

The letter was signed by Mesdames F. Hebert, C. M. Sharp, C. Salzman, J. Sakalik, J. Kay, F. Drayton and E. Ferris.

Only anti-dog leash ordinance letter received by the council was from Mrs. Arthur Rodgers, 198 Gambetta street, who said "people who have children should put them on leashes." Mrs. Rodgers declared that children do more damage to lawns and flowers than dogs.

"Law By Few"

"Law by a few is no law at all" she summarized her feelings.

Offering a compromise were Janice J. McCraney and James M. McCraney of 43 Park Manor drive, who said "dogs are entitled to some freedom."

The compromise suggested was that the ordinance be confined to only "commercial, school and playground areas" and that "purely residential areas be exempted."

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

Of the many worlds that have been created on the stage through which an audience may wander for a brief time, surely the happy worlds created by Gilbert and Sullivan have the most loyal following, as anyone who attended the D'Olyly Carte's opening night performance of "The Mikado" can attest. For an hour or two the Geary Theatre was the town of Titipu, and the near capacity audience was an eager spectator to the humerous complications that can arise when the Mikado's son, disguised as a second trombone, falls in love with Yum-Yum, the ward of Ko-Ko the Lord High Executioner. In fact, there were times when the response from the audience was so immediate as to almost anticipate certain situations, giving the impression that everyone had studied his lines before he came.

In the role of Ko-Ko, sentenced to death for flirting and then elevated to his exalted station "by a set of curious chances," Peter Pratt is the latest link in a long chain of great comedians to play the part of an executioner who has "never even killed a bluebottle." As in all interpretations of great roles, something of his predecessors is heard and seen in Pratt's performance. However, he is not merely an echo of the past. He never permits tradition to become stiff and cumbersome, but imbues his role with a spontaneity that makes one half-believe that this is the very first time it has been presented.

Frustrated Mikado

With the exception of Ko-Ko, the entire government of Titipu consists of Pooh-Bah, Lord High Everything Else, whose family pride is of tremendous proportions. Except for the difference in costume, Fisher Morgan's portrayal of a puffed-up politician is identical with his fellows who bluster and blunder their way through Lichty's cartoons. With all our talk of advancement over Victorian manners and morals, apparently the political breed remains unchanged.

Donald Adams plays the Mikado, indulging his favorite philanthropy, "making the punishment fit the crime" with cruel relish, but betraying a deep-seated frustration over his inability to get a word in edgeways when Katisha his daughter-in-law-elect choses to speak. Musically speaking, the latter role, played by Ann Drummond-Grant, was the most satisfying of the entire cast.

It has been said many times that there can never be a perfect performance. "The Mikado" failed to achieve perfection due to the merely adequate performances of Cynthia Morey as Yum-Yum and Neville Griffiths as Nanki-Po.

Children's Treat

If you missed "The Mikado" there will be four additional performances, beginning Thursday, August 18. There is also still time to see "Iolanthe" and "Pirates." As this is the first time the D'Oyly Carte Company has been here in something like a generation, Savoyards had better take advantage of this visit; who knows when they will return.

CHRISTMAS BONBON IN AUGUST . . . Balanchine's entire-evening production of "The Nutcracker" to play one whole week, beginning August 23rd. At the Opera House. No child should miss this.

Runaway Delivery Truck Crashes Into Local Home

A Daly City delivery man was cited by police Friday when his runaway truck crashed into a house on Peoria street. Driver of the United Parcel Service delivery van was Kenneth W. Comstock, 26, 35 Peoria street.

Officers said that Comstock parked his truck in the driveway of his home but failed to place wheel blocks under the wheels. They also declared that brakes on the van were inadequate.

The truck rolled across the street and crashed into the home of Thomas Quickert, 28 Peoria street.

Safety News

"Traffic signs are signs of life. Know them and obey them."

Inspector H. Sundermann of the Daly City police department gave that advice to motorists today as he urged them to support the Signs of Life program of the Daly City police department and the National Safety Council. This program is designed to promote better knowledge of traffic signs and signals and to encourage strict obedience to them.

"Traffic sign locations are determined by careful engineering studies Inspector H. Sundermann said. "Whenever you see one there's a sound reason for it's presence, and it's to your advantage to obey it.

Inspector Sundermann emphasized that traffic signs, signals and pavement markings for both motorists and pedestrians should be given the same obedience accorded a traffic officer.

Recognize On Sight

He advised motorists to learn the Signs of Life by shape so that they may be recognized on sight. Due to recent revisions in the Manual of Uniform Traffic Control Devices, he said, vacationing motorists may see signs of unfamiliar shape and color. The manual now recommends that the octagonal stop sign be red instead of yellow. It also recommends the use of a Yield Right of Way Sign, triangular in shape and yellow in color. This brings the number of basic sign shapes to six. Inspector Sundermann listed them as follows:

1. DIAMOND, yellow. This sign indicates danger ahead, carries such messages as Slow, School, Narrow Bridge, Men Working, or the directional symbols describing curves, intersectons, side road, etc. It means slow down, stay alert.

2. RECTANGULAR, white. Tells of speed limits, marks no passing zones, gives other regulatory information such as parking rules. Obey its message.

Yield Right of Way

3. TRIANGULAR, yellow. This sign is the Yield Right of Way. It tells the motorist to defer to the driver on the intersecting street. However, he need not come to a full stop except when necessary to avoid traffic on the intersecting street.

4. ROUND, yellow sign warns of a highway-railroad intersection 300 to 500 feet ahead. This sign calls for reduced speed and extra caution, so the driver can make sure no train is coming before he drives across the tracks.

5. RAILROAD CROSSBUCK marks the intersection of highway and railway. Cross only when the way is clear.

6. EIGHT-SIDED. Yellow or red. This sign means STOP—one message, one requirement—never anything else.

CITY WILL CARRY THEIR OWN MONEY; NO RELAY SYSTEM

The city council decided Monday night to do away with services of an armored car company, after learning that the city itself must transport the money part of the way.

City Manager Howard Stites said the city has had a contract with an armored car company to count and transport parking meter pennies to San Francisco.

The catch was, Stites said, that the city has been lugging the unprotected money to the local bank, from where it was picked up by the armored car company.

"The whole purpose of such service is to have the money protected at all times. We're taking it to the bank now so we may as well count the money ourselves and take it down town. We'll save $65 a month.

Aye, said the council unanimously, and so it was.

Grand Jury Closes Case Against Fahey

The "battle royal" between John J. Fahey, Jr., local attorney, and District Attorney Keith Sorenson appeared closed Monday night by the San Mateo county grand jury.

Fahey was called before the grand jury at Sorenson's request following a statement by Fahey at the David Johnstone, Jr., hearing that he had heard that Sorenson was accepting payoffs from an abortion mill operating in the county.

The local attorney claimed that his statement was made only to point out the danger of hearsay evidence.

"I told the jury that I had been informed of such a fact but considered it only hearsay," Fahey declared today.

The attorney added that the jury questioned him on the source of his information, but that he, Fahey, refused to divulge the name of his informant on the grounds that he would be releasing confidential information given him by a client.

Fahey was in the jury room for a 15-minute period during which time he said he suggested that the jury investigate the method by which the district attorney administers justice in the county.

Jury spokesmen declared that they would not follow through on Fahey's recommendation, and also that they were fully satisfied with the attorney's explanation of his remark.

COPS AGAIN CALLED TO KIRCHHUBEL BAR

Police were called this weekend to referee an argument at Kirchhubel's bar, 6296 Mission street, between John Milani, bartender, and a Barkeley resident.

Milani called police at 12:30 a.m. Sunday morning and reported the disturbance. According to the officer's report, no arrests were made and Milani was sent back to the tavern and John C. McKinley, 1361 Glendale, Barkeley, was sent home.

The Kirchhubel bartender was involved in still another argument the previous weekend which resulted in the arrest of a local accountant.

FRANKFORT PROVES WELL SUPPLIED WITH KIDS PLAY MATERIAL

Frankfort park, contrary to a citizen's charge recently, is well supplied with playground equipment, City Manager Howard Stites reported Monday night to the council.

At the July 25 meeting a citizen had said there was almost no equipment for children to use at Frankfort.

Stites reported there were some 30 separate pieces of equipment there, including softballs, volley balls, color books, checker sets, croquet sets and other accoutrements of play.

LOCAL FIREMAN, SF MAN IN AUTO MISHAP

A 26-year-old San Francisco man was cited for following too closely behind another car when he was involved in an accident Wednesday morning with a Daly City fireman.

According to police, the collision occurred when the San Francisco driver swung his car from the slow lane to the fast lane on Junipero Serra boulevard, thereby crashing into the rear of a car driven by Herbert K. Powell, 29, 250 Market street, local fireman.

Cited was George T. Demaree, 26, 150 Orizaba avenue, San Francisco.

Cops Witness Caddy Make Real Wide Turn: Thirty Days Or $150

Manfred Hanson, 47-year-old caddy at Lake Merced club, who lives at 247 Los Banos avenue, Daly City, picked a bad time for erractic driving this week.

Monday evening, police report said, Hanson, after assertedly imbibing a little too heavily of cream sherry wine, made a very wide turn into North Parkview on the wrong side of the street, narrowly missing a Cadillac and another auto driven by Mrs. Lawrence Scott, 50 Willits street.

As it sometimes happens, a police patrol car was cruising by and the officers observed the unorthodox motoring.

When stopped, police said, Hanson had with him a fifth of wine, of which seven-eighths was gone.

He was charged with drunk driving without a license in his possession.

Appearing Tuesday in municipal court, Hanson pleaded guilty to both counts and was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail or $150 fine. He was given a 10-day stay of sentence.

LIFEGUARD SAVES 13-YEAR-OLD GIRL AT JEFF HI POOL

Drowning of a 13-year-old girl was averted Wednesday night by the quick action of Arleen Pool, one of three lifeguards at the Jefferson Union High school swimming pool.

Taken to Junipero Serra hospital where she was treated for shock was Eleanor Loader, 13, Box 82, Moss Beach.

According to Mike Orlich, head of the swim program at Jeff, the girl was holding on to the side at the deep end of the pool when her grasp weakened and she submerged beneath the water.

Orlich said that quick action by Miss Pool perhaps saved the child's life. The lifeguard rescued the girl from the water and with artificial respiration, had her breathing before firemen arrived with oxygen.

The child was a poor swimmer, Orlich said.

The child was a poor swimmer, Orlich said.

Attendants at Junipero Serra hospital declared that Eleanor was scheduled to be released from the hospital yesterday (Thursday).

OK 2 STREET LIGHTS FOR SOUTHEAST DC

Southeast Daly City will be lit up shortly.

The city council voted Monday night to proceed immediately with installation of two street lights, one the corner of Orange and Hoffman streets, the other at Atlanta and Hoffman.

The PG&E had recommended a total of five lights for the area. Manager Howard Stites informed the council that cost of lighting was becoming almost prohibitive. He suggested that a lighting maintenance district might be the answer for future installations.

The council decided to have the two lights put in immediately, and held the PG&E's recommendation under advisement.

Local Painter Cited In Three-Car Accident

A local painter was cited Tuesday afternoon when he allegedly drove his car through a yellow light at Junipero Serra boulevard and Knowles avenue, thereby causing a three-car accident, according to police.

Cited for proceeding through a yellow light without due caution was Harold W. Monyhon, 39, 226 Hillside boulevard.

Police said the accident occurred when the car driven by Monyhon collided with a half-ton truck, ricocheted back and hit another car.

Driver of the truck was Jessie George, 39, 1375 - 31st street, San Francisco, and driver of the third car was George S. Barroly, 42, 3910 Alemany boulevard, a cook.

DC Man, Wanted In 3 Cities, Caught In SF

John R. Goggin, 23, 250 Irvington street, wanted by three cities on different counts, was arrested by San Francisco police Friday afternoon.

Daly City police have a warrant for Goggin's arrest for auto theft, San Francisco wanted him for allegedly passing $1300 in bad checks, and South San Francisco police were after him for questioning on the rape of a deaf-mute girl.

Police located Goggin when they were informed that he had stolen a .32 pistol from the apartment of a friend.

When officers, on a tipoff from one of Goggin's friends, surprised Goggin at a south of Market street hotel, they found a $10 pawn ticket for the gun in his pocket.

School Trustees Agree On Candidate For Business Post

Jefferson Elementary school board of trustees agreed unanimously Wednesday night on a candidate for the new position of district administrative assistant, Superintendent H. Z. Weibel announced today.

Weibel asked that the name of the man be withheld until he is notified of the acceptance of his application. The superintendent revealed, however, that the man chosen is 40 years old and is now studying for his doctorate at Stanford University.

The man chosen has been specially trained for the type of work to be done in the new position and has a wide background of both business and education, according to Weibel.

All trustees voted for the man chosen following an interview of two candidates. Trustee Henry Kraus, who was unable to attend the personnel meeting because of illness, gave his "aye" vote over the phone.

Weibel also announced today that Joseph S. Cutler, chosen for the position of Colma school principal, was unable to take the post because of prior commitments.

The superintendent said that the other applicants are again being considered for the position left vacant with the resignation of Hillard Alfson.

CINERAMA HOLIDAY PREMIERE ON TV

"You know when we go home after an exciting week like this one," commented lovely star Betty Marsh, "we are almost anti-social and we don't dress up!" . . . as she appeared with her husband on KGO-TV during a brief interview at the West Coast Premiere of "Cinerama Holiday" at the Orpheum Theatre. On a special reviewing stand in front of the theatre, the stars along with Cinerama and Stanley Warner Corporation officials as well as leading government officials and citizens participated in radio and television broadcasts. The broadcasts were the climax of a spectacular Market street parade heralding the opening of Cinerama Holiday at the Orpheum Theatre.

Complete with tiny orchids and white carnation boutonnieres and a beautifully illustrated program giving the history of the film, the preview of Cinerama Holiday was truly an exciting experience! Seated among members of the broadcasting industry in the forward part of the theatre, we actualy did feel that we were right along on the exciting holiday. We held our breath on the dangerous bobsled run at St. Moritz . . . we were tempted to join in the community singing with Betty and John and the happy Swiss in the land of the Alps . . . we were awed by the Solemnity of High Mass at Notre Dame.

After seeing such a fabulous yet intimate film, we actually did feel that we knew the Marshs because we were right along with them sharing their memorable experiences. So it was almost like meeting old friends to see and hear them on our television screen as the film premiered in San Francisco.

"Cinerama Holiday" was produced by Louis de Rochemont and the premiere was sponsored by the San Francisco Press and Union League Club. The proceeds from the film will be used for scholarship awards for high school journalism students of Northern and Central California.

Local Widow Gets First Benefits From Social Security

A young Daly City widow and her small son became the first survivors in this area to receive higher social security payments because of the new disability provision in the law.

Mrs. Hannah D. Couff, 109 Wilshire ave., was presented with her tation center that he wrote a first check by Roy F. Nilsson, assistant manager of the San Francisco Mission district office. The check for $384.80 represented a lump-sum death payment of $255 and the first of the $129.80 monthly payments which Mrs. Couff and her five-and-a-half year old son will receive for many years.

Polio Victim

Mrs. Couff is the widow of Stanton L. Couff, who died on July 4. Couff came to San Francisco in 1946 from his home in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, after four years of service in the Army. He worked as bookkeeper for the Westco company until he was stricken with poliomyelitis on November 12, 1951.

He was in an iron lung for over a year in Childrens hospital, and then he was confined to a wheelchair in his home. He was receiving special treatments at the Mae T. Morrison Rehabilitation Center four afternoons a week.

Wrote Column

Couff had learned with the help of special attachments to operate an electric typewriter, and it was on this typewriter at the rehabilitation center that he wrote his weekly column. When he was overseas with the Army he wrote for the Army newspaper.

The new provision in the Social Security law, which provides for the elimination of the period during Couff's disability in figuring the benefits of his survivors, resulted in higher benefits for Mrs. Couff and her young son, Michael. Luckily Couff filed a claim to establish his disability period before his death. Otherwise the period of disability could not have been eliminated.

Benefits

Mrs. Couff will receive $64.90 a month for herself and $64.90 for Michael until he reaches age 18. Mrs. Couff had thought that she would not be entitled to Social Security benefits because her husband had not worked since he became ill in 1951 and had no earnings except for his small earnings from the writing of his newspaper column. Now she feels she can work things out so that she does not have to leave her young son to take a full-time job and can devote her time to being both mother and father to Michael.

Increase

Today is an important one for many Social Security beneficiaries throughout the country, according to Nilsson.

Those already receiving Social Security retirement benefits, who were disabled before reaching 65, have received increases in their Social Security checks today because they filed for the disability freeze. The July check is the first check under the law which could be increased.

The new provision is also important to younger disabled workers and disabled people with families. If they die without having made application, under the increased benefits of the disability freeze will be available to their families.

"Help Others"

Mrs. Couff consented to publication of these facts about her benefits because it was believed that the information would help other families understand their rights under the program.

Workers who have been totally disabled for work for six months or more may inquire at their Social Security office at 2747 Mission street in person or by mail, or they may have some other member of the family inquire for them.

BRIDE OF FOUR HOURS INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

An 18-year-old girl who was married only four hours earlier to a Daly City resident, was hospitalized Sunday evening in a rear-end crash on Bayshore highway in Menlo Park.

Marilyn Cooney, daughter of Col. Clem Tice of San Francsico, was married at 2 p.m. Sunday to Roger Cooney, 21, of 139 Crestwood drive.

The accident occurred, according to California Highway Patrol, when a southbound car driven by Madison A. Pascoe, 42, of Pacific Grove, stopped about 25 feet north of the Alpine avenue intersection in Melo Park.

A vehicle driven by Nicholas Belardi, 57, of Felton, managed to stop in time, but Cooney's car plowed into the rear of the Belardi car, hurling it against the Pascoe vehicle. The gas tank on Belardi's vehicle burst and the ignited gas spread through both the Belardi and Cooney vehicles.

Mrs. Cooney was admitted to Palo Alto hospital, while her husband was treated for a chin cut, then released.

The Belardis and Clarence Hansen, 44, of Felton, the Belardis passenger, were also hospitalized.

ELEMENTARY DISTRICT TO BUY SCHOOL SITE FROM CHRIS McKEON

The Jefferson Elementary schol district will drop condemnation proceedings for a seven-acre site on the Zanone property just purchased by Developer Cris McKeon. Agreement came when McKeon, in a meeting with Superintendent H. Z. Weibel, declared that he would sell the desired property to the district.

Weibel said today that the district will not purchase the site for the proposed Margaret Pauline Brown school until after the first of next year.

Also agreed to by McKeon was a plan whereby his corporation would work towards widening Edgemar road to a main artery, thus making it more accessible to children who will attend the new school.

The Margaret Pauline Brown school will be part of the huge 4000-home subdivision planned by McKeon for the area.

PENNEY STORE FIRE CAUSES $600 DAMAGES

An estimated $600 damage was caused Monday night when fire broke out at Penney's store, now under construction at the Westlake Shopping center.

According to Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy, damage occurred in a huge pile of paper rolls of construction material. The chief said that about 25 to 30 of these rolls were destroyed by the fire.

Fireman John Martin, 539 Evergreen street, was injured when he cut his hand on bindings tied about the rolls. Fiye stitches were taken in his hand at Junipero Serra hospital.

Kenedy declared that the fire was probably caused by children or by a bon fire left by the workmen.

HOME-HOW-TO'S

Install Your Own New Floor

Homemakers young and old are discovering just how much money they can save by doing their own redecorating and remodeling. And beside the money they save, there is also the joy of being able to say, "I did it myself." Today, anybody who is handy around the house can get a big kick out of working on one of countless "do-it-yourself" projects. For example, for those who want to put down a new floor in the kitchen, dining room or bath, Congoleum-Nairn, Inc. has gotten together a kit that contains all the tools that are required. A complete instruction booklet has also been made up.

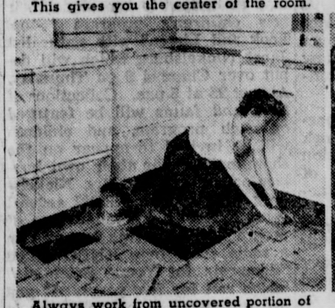
To stimulate interest in tile floors, Congoleum-Nairn is holding a special kitchen of the year contest this spring. Prizes up to $5,000 will be awarded to consumers who install a new tile floor in their kitchen. Local dealers have full contest details.

If you're interested in a new look for your own kitchen this year, a tile floor could well be the right answer for you. It is one of the easiest of floors to maintain and is one of the brightest, most colorful floors that money can buy. Tiles come in a wide selection of materials—linoleum, vinyl, rubber, asphalt, and cork.

The photos below show the easy steps in laying a tile floor.

Start by finding mid point of end wall and snap a chalk line between these points. Repeat operation for side walls. This gives you the center of the room.

Tiles are laid starting from the center of the room. Cover a quarter of the room at a time. Spread paste evenly, smoothly.



Always work from uncovered portion of the floor. Place tiles in position, don't slide them. This prevents paste from oozing up between tile joints.

Here is your new floor—one that will make your kitchen sparkle in the Jackstraw design.

Workman Injured As Scaffolding Breaks

A 49-year-old workman suffered cuts and bruises Tuesday morning when a scaffolding broke at the J. C. Penney building project in Westlake, throwing him some 15 feet to the ground.

Jim McVey, 1331 Masonic avenue, San Francisco, was treated for the minor hurts at Junipero Serra hospital, then released.

Four other men were on the scaffolding with McVey when it fell, but none were hurt.

COMMITTEE PLANS "DAVID'S PARADE"

Daly City's "David's Parade," planned for August 27, took on more definite form this week with the delegation of duties to committee members Thursday night.

Young David Steward, whose parade last year has apparently evolved into an annual affair, presided over the meeting at the city hall.

Others present were City Manager Howard Stites, Recreation Director James Mason, Chamber of Commerce President Fred Martin, Ruben Martinez, 346 Woodrow street; Bob Berry, 206 School street; Paul Tapia, 76 Mariam street; Frank Ingersoll, 105 Surf street; Sharp Park; Mrs. Genevieve Boydston, 81 Crestwood drive, David's mother; and Nancy Lamb, THE RECORD reporter.

The navy will supply at least one band for Daly City's "David's Parade" on August 27, it was announced today by Lieutenant Austin Doyle, Twelfth Naval district public information officer.

Also promised by the navy are two or three marching units, an honor guard, two floats and possibly a marching unit of waves.

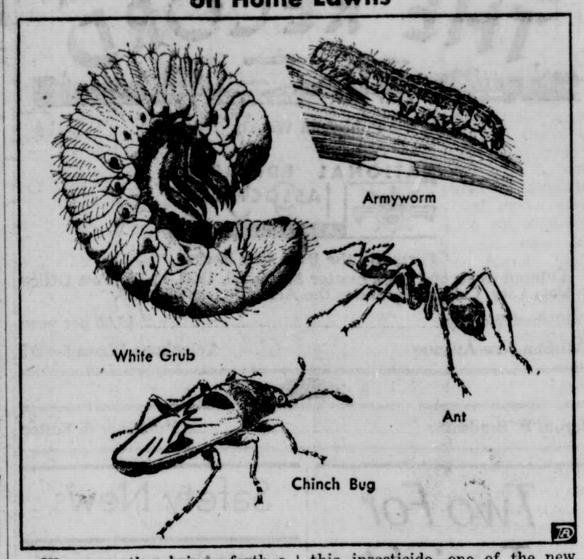
Tentative route of the parade, still to be approved by the State Highways commission, is formation on Brunswick, start at Hillside, down Hillside and across Mission to Knowles, down Knowles and across Junipero Serra to Alemany, and down Alemany to Lake Merced boulevard, where the parade will disband.

The parade is scheduled to begin at 1 p.m., and participating units will be asked to be on Brunswick street by 12 noon.

The next meeting of the committee will be held tomorrow (Thursday) night at 8 p.m. at the city hall.

Other persons interested in joining the August 27 parade may call David at PLaza 6-1884.

Wrecking Crew Now at Work on Home Lawns



Warm weather brings forth a horde of insects, as any home gardener knows. It's easy to see the surface pests that chew on green grass and foliage, but entomologists say that insect larvae in the soil also cause serious damage by eating the roots of grass and shrubs.

Lawn and garden experts are urging homeowners to treat early in the season to avoid the ravages of the insect "wrecking crew." One way to get rid of hungry bugs and grubs that eat the beauty out of your turf and ornamentals is to apply dieldrin, a lawn insecticide that lasts a long time.

Lasts for years in soil

In the soil, dieldrin actually provides protection against insect larvae for years. On the surface, this insecticide is effective for weeks. Cutworms, ants, lawn moths, chinch bugs, white grubs, and even mosquitoes, chiggers and fleas that live in grass and shrubbery, are controlled by dieldrin. Entomologists explain that this insecticide, one of the new members of the chlorinated hydrocarbon family, kills insects if they eat, breathe or touch it.

The new bug killer is available in several forms, all of which can be applied easily by the homeowner to turf or ornamental plants.

Choose suitable formulation

It's up to the gardener to choose the formulation best suited to his needs. He should spread it over the entire lawn, making sure not to miss areas. The insecticide can be applied anytime, but after application turf should be watered to soak the insecticide into the soil.

Formulations of dieldrin are prepared and sold by leading insecticide manufacturers under their own brand names, such as Ortho, Acme, Real-Kill, Lawntrol, Black Leaf and others. These products can be purchased at most garden supply stores, hardware stores and insecticide dealers.

CITY CONSIDERS 6 PARK SITES IN WESTLAKE AREA

Development of six acres of land in Westlake for playground sites was discussed Monday night by the city council.

Doelger, in the agreement drawn up with the city on annexation of 440 acres of his land, will set aside six acres of property for city parks, of which the city will receive two free. Doelger will also equip the parks, according to the council.

Mayor Joseph Verducci recommended that the land be purchased in an area away from school facilities, to avoid duplication.

Edmund Cavagnaro, chairman of the recreation commission, said his group was in favor of this plan.

City Manager Howard Stites said the problem is how the city will obtain the money to purchase the park sites.

"We're going to have to tie up these six acres soon, before the land is completely developed, but there's not enough money in the budget."

Cavagnaro suggested the city take an option to purchase.

PIPE BREAK SHUTS OFF WATER FOR TWO LOCAL BUSINESSES

A break in a shut-off valve connection on a 60-inch water line on Sullivan street near 91st avenue Sunday left a restaurant and theater without water for nearly four hours.

According to Broadmoor police, the line, belonging to the San Francisco water department, broke Sunday morning.

That evening from 7 to 10:30 p.m. water service to the Serra Theater and Colonial restaurant was shut off as workmen attempted to drain the nearly one-mile of pipe so they could repair the connection.

Service to the restaurant was restored when a garden hose was tied in from a fire hydrant to the building.

The council has long sought to enter a joint program with the school district for financing recreation. The city agreed to equal or top any amount of money allocated by the school district.

Verducci directed City Manager Howard Stites to contact the school district and determine how they plan to spend the funds gained from the five-cent tax, and if they are going to include Daly City in their plans.

SF Man Loses Eye In Auto Accident

A 67-year-old San Francisco man lost an eye as a result of a two-car collision at Pierce and Sullivan streets near Broadmoor Sunday night.

Broadmoor police reported that the injury resulted from a smash-up between vehicles driven by Dorothy Burke, 19, of 95 Pinehaven, Westlake, and Buster Miller, 11 Miriam street, Daly City.

Police said Miller was travelling north on Sullivan with his father-in-law, Michael Lynch, 1271 20th avenue, San Francisco.

His car collided with Miss Burke's, who was travelling west on Pierce street with her mother, Ruth Burke, 50, also of 95 Pinehaven.

The force of the collision threw Lynch against the car mirror.

Lynch was rushed to Junipero Serra hospital for treatment of multiple cuts about the eye and nose and a possible fractured pelvis.

Later that evening he was transferred to St. Joseph's hospital, where his right eye was removed by surgery.

Mrs. Burke was treated at Junipero Serra hospital for head cuts, then released. Miller and Miss Burke suffered no apparent injuries, police said.

Neither driver was cited.

W'lake Clubhouse Construction Nears, Council Told Mon.

Re-designing of the $25,000 Westlake clubhouse to be built by Henry Doelger has been completed and work will get underway "as soon as possible," the city council learned Monday night.

City Manager Howard Stites said floor plans for the structure, to be located off Lake Merced boulevard, were finished 10 days ago and the land has been excavated and grades established so that work can begin any time.

The manager said start of the project awaited only final approval of the plans by the council.

Stites said foundation of the building had been completely redesigned and now features a solid block foundation which will allow the structure to "float" uniformly if the earth level drops.

Under the old plans, any drop in the earth under the foundation might have damaged the building. Mayor Joseph Verducci Monday night urged Stites to expedite the project immediately with the Doelger firm.

COASTSIDERS GET 16 HITS; WHIP CALIF. TIRE, 10-6

A five-hit relief pitching performance by Mike Yorks pulled Coastside Merchants out of a hole and gave them a 10-6 victory Sunday over California Tire.

It was the fourth win against two defeats for the Coastsiders, and places them in line for runner-up spot in the San Francisco A league, providing they win this Sunday against Frank and Charley's, who are tied with them.

Yorks took over Sunday in the second inning, after starter Mel Lopiva had given up two runs in the first frame, one in the second, and had put two men on base. Three walks by Lopiva was his undoing, but the four hits he handed the tiremen didn't help.

Yorks gave up a run in the sixth and two in the ninth. He struck out five batters, walking two.

The Coastsiders unlimbered the lumber for 16 hits, Yorks himself getting a triple and a single in three official at bats.

Milt Ford doubled for the Merchants, while Bill Robertson and Lawrence Jenkins each got three singles in five tries.

This Sunday's contest against Frank and Charley's will mark the last of the season for the Merchants in the San Francisco league.

Manager John Kelly says he hopes to schedule some games on the Sharp Park field, providing it is ready in time.

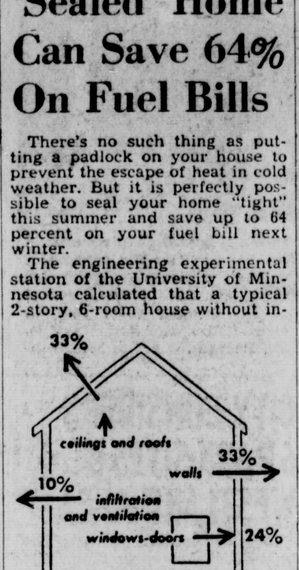
'Sealed' Home Can Save 64% On Fuel Bills

There's no such thing as putting a padlock on your house to prevent the escape of heat in cold weather. But it is perfectly possible to seal your home "tight" this summer and save up to 64 percent on your fuel bill next winter.

The engineering experimental station of the University of Minnesota calculated that a typical 2-story, 6-room house without insulation, weatherstripping, or storm sash, loses 33 percent of its heat through exterior walls; 33 percent through ceiling or roof; 24 percent through glass and doors; and 10 percent through leakage and infiltration.



Heat Steals Away

No matter how solid the construction, heat inevitably steals away and runs up the fuel bill, but insulation properly installed in the typical house can reduce the heat loss through exterior walls by 66 percent and through the ceiling and roof by 78 percent.

A minimum of 3 inches of mineral wool insulation installed in the walls set up an effective barrier to the escape of heat and keeps the inside surface of the walls nearly equal in temperature to the room itself. In existing houses, the mineral wool is blown into place. In new construction, insulation is generally installed in the form of blankets or batts.

Attic Insulated

In a finished attic, the underside of the roof deck is insulated with 3-inch batts or blankets placed between and stapled to the rafters. In an unfinished attic, blankets or batts are installed between the floor joists, or loose wool can be blown between the joists to a depth of 4 inches.

Storm windows and storm doors can reduce the heat loss through glass and doors by 45 percent, and a good job of weatherstripping can cut air infiltration and leakage through windows by 50 percent.

LAW IN ACTION

PREVENTION

Laws serve as the ground rules of our affairs, set up to keep business going and our lives orderly. As such it is the top science of human relations.

Certainly, nobody invented the laws to cause law suits. As a rule law suits come when somebody disobeys the plain signs of legal trouble. Preventive advice can head this trouble off, much more cheaply than it can get you out of trouble once you are in.

If you can't pay the usual fee, the lawyer has a duty to see that every one can get a lawyer's service when he needs it. In fact, lawyers in most large cities have set up excellent legal aid and lawyers' reference services for just that purpose.

A Couple of Cases

His company transferred Mr. Brown and he needed a house. He found one, an old one in poor repair. The owner told him he could have the house on a two year lease for "fixing it up." So Mr. Brown painted, repaired and moved into the house. Three months later he got notice to get out. The owner had sold the house!

Mr. Brown sought legal advice—too late. He found that he needed a written lease for such a long term. Mr. Brown would like to kick himself. He could so easily have saved himself a law suit which he now needs to keep his remaining rights.

2. Miss Green, a business woman, wanted a friend to have her place when she died. She thought she knew how to get her way. She wrote up a deed to this friend, signed it, and placed it in her safety deposit box, and—made no will.

But her friend did not get the place. Title did not pass when Miss Green died. Miss Green had not "delivered" the deed while still alive: No deed is any good if the giver may get it back when he likes.

A deed differs from a will in this: You may change or revoke your will at any time. Today Miss Green's distant kin are suing each other like mad for her property.

A will would have worked.

ne A Cat Is evived At Vestlake Park

By the Recreation Department

The old standby, the game of he a cat" has been rejuvenated Westlake. Most of our softball yers are away to summer camp on summer vacation. Consequently, some game had to be rted that would satisfy the aving for softball but solve the ndicap of not an adequate ount of players. "One a Cat" s the answer and some of its l boosters over at the playound are Dick Reese, John own, John Rice, The Chenswald others, Alan and Steve, and Har- De Vach.

Westlake has started its checks tournament in preparation for e district checker tournament to held at the community center iday. Prizes are to be given to e champions of the four age oups. Westlake has some real arp competitors in the eight and der age bracket and a few of e first round winners in this acket are Joe Coccelatto, Skipr Smith, Natalie Patnik, Den- Stenson and David Pucci. In e only game played to date in e 9-10 age bracket, George El- came out on top. Barbara Vercci, Charlene Penna and Rich ylin are the first round winners the 11-12 year age groups.

Chess is another game that the ght and under age bracket has ken up, believe it or not, and the rls in this group can really play e game. Susan Bianchi and dy Moore are among the better ayers.

Everybody that participated on r regular Wednesday field trip Skateland voted it the best e we've had all summer. But ul Garris, who hasn't missed one ip this year, says he still likes em all.

We haven't been able to run off l our tournaments yet, but nevertheless a word of praise for Westke's uncrowned champion in ese sports: John Drye for paddle ol; Ed Berg for pingpong; Marret Foxman for Chinese checkrs; John Brown for basketball acuracy; Barbara Verducci for irl's ping pong; Dick Reese for ne a cat," and Jim Nash for ther ball.

and, Harold D., calling for help. Mrs. Kellstrom told police that he and her husband rushed downtairs where they found the fire.

Moses, who slept in another oom, did not know of the death ntil after Mrs. Moses had been aken to Junipero Serra hospital here she was pronounced dead n arrival.

When Officer Phillip LaBruzzo rrived at the Moses home he ound the dead woman seated in a vicker chair close to the door of he apartment. According to La Bruzzo, Mrs. Moses was seated so hat her feet were placed on a nearby canvas cot.

Police are unable to explain why Mrs. Moses apparently moved from he overstuffed chair to the wicker hair—a distance of eight feet—when she could have escaped the ire through the rear door of the partment. The only damage was aused to the two chairs.

It is still to be determined whether Mrs. Moses' death was caused by a heart attack or burning.

Besides her husband and sister, Mrs. Moses is survived by another sister, Mrs. Bernice Antrim of Los Angeles. Services and inurnment were at Cypress Lawn Memorial Park on Wednesday.

50% Sign

About 50 per cent of the 819 signatures required on the petition have been obtained, according to Thomas Noonan, pro-incorporation leader.

"We hope to obtain about 1000 to 1200 total signatures for a safety margin," he added.

Noonan estimated that work on the petitions would take another two weeks, thus bringing time of submitting the petitions close to the deadline of August 29.

number of his car. Conci said that her story of phoning San Francisco police to tell them of her husband's threat has been verified.

No One Will Know

Mrs. Hall also revealed that her husband told her that "no one will ever know it was suicide."

3. Information has been received that the psychiatric staff at San Francisco hospital declared that Hall had "depressed, suicidal ideas" when he was admitted there from May 31 to June 6. A report made on June 2 stated that Hall was "mentally ill and in need of supervision."

4. The fact that the tie was loosely tied about his hands is another indication that Hall committed suicide, Conci said. Apparently the blue silk tie was bound in a Windsor knot, and Hall might have held one end of the tie in his mouth to bind his hands, according to the inspector.

5. That Hall's hands were tied in front of his body rather than behind also points to suicide, Conci declared. He added that it is usual for murderers to tie the victim's hands behind their bodies.

6. Conci revealed the fact that Hall, being a strapping six foot, three inches, probably had longer arms than most persons and, therefore, could have more easily shifted to the awkward position in which he allegedly shot himself.

Still Investigating

Despite the suicide motive being almost definitely established, local police are going ahead with their investigation.

Wednesday night Conci contacted Hall's second wife, Mrs. Evelyn Hall, 2235 Larkin street, San Francisco. The inspector revealed today that he will follow through on several leads given by the second Mrs. Hall.

Police also are investigating the innumerable articles found in the back seat of Hall's car. Among those items so far discovered are included two gold wedding bands, a "True Story" magazine, void insurance policies, checkbook, and old notebooks and envelopes with scribbled mottos written on them.

Inserted in the magazine is a handwritten story of a suicide by hanging. The name of a Fresno woman is on the story, and a story contest blank has been removed from the magazine.

Bum Check Charge

The insurance policies were taken out by Hall when he worked as an investigator for Kraut & Schrider Insurance company in 1954-55. He was fired when arrested on a bum check charge.

Police have been unable to find any additional life insurance policies, thus eliminating the motive of Hall's attempting to cover up suicide because of self-inflicted death clauses included in many policies.

The checkbook found by police dates back to July 8 and shows that Hall withdrew large sums of money from his account during a business trip across country. Hall reportedly returned Tuesday night from the business trip.

Officials of the Mars Metal company, for which Hall worked, revealed that the dead man had gone over his expense account on the trip and that they were contemplating firing him.

Scribbled mottos on scraps of paper included such things as "you become what you contemplate" and "make your objective the burning desire of your life."

Hall's body is now undergoing coroner's investigation.

One Man Team Is W'lake Merchants Downfall, Lose 8-7

Pittsburgh Oaks threw a one-man team, in the name of Bob Weekley, at Westlake Merchants Sunday and squeezed by with an 8-7 victory.

Weekley threw five innings of no-hit ball at the merchants, batted in five RBIs with a grand-slam homer in the first and a single in the eighth.

When removed in the sixth, Weekley took over at centerfield, where he made a game-saving catch in the ninth inning with two on and two out.

Of Westlake's six hits, five were for extra bases. Jim Slatts tripled, while John McCarthy banged out a pair of doubles.

VETO NEW JOHNSTONE TRIAL

cient time to review the civil service board's transcript before making their decision; and had failed to consider the findings of fact in the transcript.

Fahey's letter also asked that he be allowed to produce affidavits bearing new evidence.

"If you approve the request for re-hearing, I strongly object to this request to introduce new evidence," said City Attorney Frank Blum. "If he wanted to introduce new evidence he should have presented it during the hearing."

"Don't you object to his statement in the letter where he terms our action a 'miscarriage of justice' because we failed to read the transcript? I lived with that transcript for three days," said Mayor Joseph Verducci angrily.

"I object to the whole letter, but this is just a formality used by attorneys in court procedures," Blum answered. He added that, "Remember, this letter is not made under oath."

"Let's take action on the request right now," said the mayor huffily.

Councilman Sanford Vickers moved that the council reject Fahey's request to appear for a new hearing and the motion passed, 3-0. Absent were Councilmen Edward Dennis and Del Wilson.

Donati Rallies

The council's action rankled Dino Donati, pin-ball machine impresario who was seated in the audience. Donati, a close friend of Johnstone's, was said to be under investigation for operating a horse race bookie establishment, according to testimony of Keith Sorenson, district attorney, at the Johnstone hearing.

"Maybe I'm reading this wrong," declared Donati, "but it appears he's (Fahey) asking permission to appear before you and ask a new hearing. You mean you're denying him the right to ask?"

"He's asking for a motion for a new trial," replied Blum.

Johnstone himself then arose. "The letter specifically states he's coming up to see you and ask for a new hearing," he stated.

Ahead of Time

"The council is informing him ahead of time that they won't allow motion for a new trial," Blum answered.

Donati took his feet again. "I'd like to submit a bill for wages I lost while appearing at the hearing and also for other witnesses." (Councilmen and board members received compensation for time at the hearings.)

"You may put in a claim with the city like everybody else," the mayor retorted.

Fahey said yesterday that despite the council's rejection of his request, he would appear at the August 22 meeting and make a motion for re-hearing.

In other business Monday, the council:

1. Authorized payment of $2658.89 to Henry Doelger Builder, Inc. for construction of water mains on Market street and other streets.

2. Authorized payment of $1594.53 to C. Norman Peterson, Inc., for Unit 2 of booster pumping plant at Westlake Reservoir No. 1.

3. Approved payment of $625 to Edwin H. Smith, engineer, for balance due on Daly City drainage project.

4. Authorized payment of $16,354.68 to O. C. Jones for resurfacing Brunswick and other strets.

Whitney, with Superintendent Stanford Hannah and representatives of the county planning commission and state department of education inspected the Pedro Valley sites Thursday.

The trustee refused to divulge at this time exact location of the sites under consideration. Whitney, coastside resident, has been spearheading the move to obtain a site on the coast for the district' third high school.

Broadmoor Yankees held on to their share of first place in Daly City Little league play Saturday with a decisive 14-2 victory over Kiwanis.

The win gave Broadmoor a 5-0 record, identical with that of OLPH.

OLPH drew a bye. Dee's Associated shut out the Brisbane Tigers, 7-0, to stay only one game off the pace. Kray Hensley turned in a three-hit performance for the win, fanning eight batters. In addition he hit two for four, driving in three runs.

Tom Ming, John Giusti and Wally Bennett all hit singles for the day. The win gives Dee's a 5-1 record.

In the other Little league tilt, Blue Jays downed 12 Mile House, 7-0, to post their second win of the season.

OLPH In Command

OLPH stayed in command in Intermediate division play with a 12-2 lambasting of Broadmoor Pirates.

OLPH chucker Larry Kane held the Pirates to two scattered singles while striking out 12 batters. He aided his cause at the plate, collecting three hits, one a homer, in three tries. Ron Kalinin, currently the hottest hitter in the circuit, got three for four. Mike Cooper garnered three for three.

The OLPH win pushed the Pirates into third behind Brisbane Giants.

Brisbane, under Coach Don Delbon, topped Sharp Park Rebels, 7-5. The Giants came from behind in the seventh frame when Brisbane pitcher Bob Wood laced a bases-loaded single to break a 5-5 tie.

With the score 6-5, Giants advantage, Al Simmons, Rebel pitcher, walked in a run to extend the Giants margin. Giants' top hitters were Bob Wood, Walt Carlson, two apiece, and Stan Kurtz, who whacked a long double.

Indians Still Rampage

With four more games to play, the Indians are figured as shoo-ins for the crown. Ino Patron was winning pitcher. He relieved Billy Wilson.

Heavy sluggers for Westlake were Patron, Paul Tapia, Gordon Tydingco and Bob Berry, each getting two or more hits.

In the morning Junior contest, D€ Suds forfeited to Brisbane because of a vacation-riddled team. This los moved Brisbane into second place and the Suds into third.

Lions Expect 150 Youngsters At Lake Merced Fishing Day

One hundred and fifty youngsters will descend on the banks of Lake Merced, August 24, when the Daly City-Colma Lions sponsor their annual fishing day for kids.

In addition to the Lions, six Daly City recreation department personnel will be on hand to supervise the Izaak Walton goings-on, reports chairman Joe Belli.

Youngsters will be transported to the lake by Lions in their private cars. Pick-up time will be 8 a.m. at Daly City and Broadmoor community centers and Westlake school.

All kids are asked to bring their fishing gear and lunches. However, in anticipation of some shortages, the Lions will have on hand some 60 fishing outfits and ice cream, milk and sandwiches for the famished anglers.

The Lions will hold their regular meeting at lakeside, and in keeping with the day's theme, will have a fried trout dinner provided by the management.

The kids and Lions will stay at the lake until 1:30 p.m., when all will return by private cars.

As a further enticement to the day's outing, Lions are offering a $5 prize for the biggest fish caught, $3 for the runner-up and $2 for the youngster who snares the smallest fish.

Truck Will Haul Gifts For Seals DiPietro On His Day At Stadium

A small truck will be present at Seals' Stadium on August 21 to bear away the household gifts for Bob DiPietro, injured first sacker, who is to be honored on "Deep Day" by the Seals and Oakland.

Fans have indicated to Walter Mails, promotional director of the Seals, that they wish to pay some tribute to DiPietro's fighting attitude on the ball club up to the time a broken ankle laid him low.

"If they insist on bringing presents to Bob, then they can come right down on the field between the doubleheader and personally present them to Bob," said Mails.

Among those on the committee for "Deep Day" is Irwin Smith of Henry Doelger, Builder, Inc.

News From The Parks

MARCHBANKS

Eliminations for this all city checkers tournament are well underway. Each park will enter a champion in the final competition which is scheduled for today (Friday) at 1 p.m. The age groups have been divided into 8 and under, 9 and 10, 11 and 12, and 13 and over, so there will be four all city winners.

Marchbank has some promising entrees. There are some old and new comers. Ricky Craig, Joan Malloy, Bob Rincon and Dan Craig are strong contenders in the running at this park. But some dark horse candidates like Lloyd Guillory, John Baker or Tony Furger might just push pass them to the winner's circle.

A junior croquet set has enlightened the life of the younger kids. Of course, the older kids join in or should I say horn in on the pretense of helping. George Staheal, Carmie Gunderson, Linda Robinson and Kathy Rincon really enjoy this game.

A baby picture contest is the newest at Marchbank. It got off to a slow start because the kids were a little timid but now it's starting to roll. Only the director knows the answer. At the end of the week a committee will judge and award a prize for the prettiest baby.

Two big thoughts occupy the mind of the Marchbanks brigade. The first is the junior olympics. The other parks have promised some fast and furious competition.

The second big thought is the Marchbanks Park Penny Carnival. Already plans are well underway. It takes the co-operation of everyone to put it over. The mothers have promised to pitch in and halp. Paul Tapia and Son-Martinez and Jim Wilson have volunteered to take over the Mystery House which was a howling success last year.

Remember the date. Wednesday, August 31, at Marchbanks.

SKATELAND

Speeding wheels and happy faces was the scene at last weeks skating party. The youngsters proclaimed this the best day so far. The skaters ranged from beginners to experts. In the expert category we saw Directors Bobbie Carroll, Beverly Raab, Bill Mendoza, Bob Wilkins. In the same category Ginny Schroeder, Marily Hasen, the Pickerings, and Anita Moreno looked mighty classy. In the beginners category we found Gordon Wiles, Bob Rasmussen, Bob Beecher and Butch Rapp skating in a sitting position about 50 per cent of the time. Director Terry Steele also a beginner always managed a vertical position.

BIKE DAY

Competition for Bike Day is now going into its third week. Points are starting to mount up. John Jungles holds the lead with 20 points. Dave Iwahashi runs a close second with 19. Mike Steele and Blake Frunson are tied for third with 16. Others like Ron Sampino, Ray Hausford and Barry Lurchise are close behind. Two more weeks remain in the contest. A make-up day will be held for all those who missed the event last week.

There will be 30 winners. Names and points will be posted at the community center and Marchbanks park. Races are held at 11 a.m. on Thursdays at Marchbanks.

LINCOLN

Activities at our playground have been very successful to date. We are having coloring contests, checkers tournaments, and a daily story hour, plus spontaneous activities that we all play together.

Our weekly trips have all been supported wholeheartedly by the children from this playground area. This week we are going to the Fleischaker zoo and we have 25 children signed up already.

Anyone interested in participating in any of the above mentioned activities please see the director, Mr. Mendosa.

EDGEWOOD

A marble contest was the big event for Saturday and everyone had a chance to try his skill. There were four children who never played before. One of these beginners, Tina Enberg, tied with Freddie Brooks for third place. This event was very skillfully won by Bobby Brooks. Second place went to Mike Steele.

Only one checker champ was dethroned — Diane Caruso, by Tina Enberg— but a rematch made her champ again.

This coming Tuesday, August 9, all the small children will have a chance to go on an excursion to the zoo. Those interested please sign up at any of the playgrounds.

ARTS AND CRAFTS

During this past week many excellent projects in papier-mach copper tooling, pyrocraft and co lage and jewelry were completed.

At Jefferson among the older girls working in copper and clay were Sandy Piccardo, Donna and Jeannine Mahood. Younger children such as Annamarie and Graziella Delfino made pictures from plastic material, fur, felt and yarn. Others doing good work in painting and collage-making included Jonnie Lahr and Donna Dillaboy.

At Crocker the Weeden sisters. Pat and the twing—Margie and Marie, have finished their clay earrings. Lnda Howe has made an unusual place mat from magazine pages.

The arts and crafts show will be held Wednesday and Thursday, August 24 and 25, from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m.; therefore, arts and crafts classes will end on August 19. It is hoped that the children will bring their best work to the classes so that it may be put in the show. All work will be returned to the owners at special dates after the show.

ARCHERY NEWS

Many hotly contested battles for 1, 2, 3 places at the various parks and plagrounds are raging. The first position is coming up against many challenges. At Colma Danny Luciano and Gary Bough have been off and on again in first place and as it stands now Danny is holding first but it is anyone's guess as to how long he can hold it against sharp shooter Gary. The high point at Colma was shotting for distance. The archers gradually moved back—five yards at a time—until they were 75 yards from the target. At this distance Gary made a Bullseye and the group that was shooting was completely surprised.

At Olympia Peter Pallet and Gary Mojouran have challenged each other so many times it looks quite natural to see them approach the shooting line together. Again it is a case of wondering who will hold out the longest.

At Westlake it has been Skipper Smith all the way. David Newshwanger has been gradually climbing until he now has taken over 2nd place. It should be quite a battle when David and Skip get together.

Marchbanks is the challenging ground for the Cox brothers. Last week Larry held first but Mike, his brother, wanted first also. At the end of three rounds Mike held first place but Larry having lost his place got a chance to re- llenge first. Mike proved too uch for him this time but Larry's last words were "wait til next time!"

At Jefferson Elementary the same old story goes on — Mike Blume in first. Although on crutches Mike is still going out for archery. It seems that the cast on his big toe is really bringing him luck—the last time out he scored 10 bulleyes in a little over 45 minutes of actual shooting time. His statement regarding this was: "As soon as this cast come off I'm going to ask the doctor to put another one on—it brings me good luck." This seems to be a new type of good luck charm but it is not recommended as part of the necessary equipment on the archery field.

At Frankfort Marcella Bisset is leading the pack and is leading high scorer for her area. She is trying to show that not only boys can be good archers.

DC Man Is 3rd In Boat Marathon

Frank Pennisi of Daly City, piloting his D Class runabout boat, known only as 166-C, overcame motor trouble to annex third place in the 310 mile Redding Marathon Saturday.

Pennisi, who recently moved to 150 Valley street with his wife and two children, held the lead for the first 30 miles but fell behind the entire pack when a spark plug went out. He was stopped for repairs, nearly half an hour, but managed to power his way back among the leaders.

Winning time posted by Arvid Nyleen of Oregon was 7 hours, nine minutes, 36 seconds. Pennisi was clocked in seven hours, 37 minutes, 54 seconds, just 15 minutes behind the runner-up.

Pennisi, 35, a sea-food cocktail packer, received $300 for show money.

In seven outings this year with his outboard, Pennisi has claimed six firsts and the third he annexed Saturday.

He has been in active racing competition for two years.

Westlake Rockets Win Peninsula Crown; Bruno Club Protests 1-0 Loss

Sensational Tapia Pitches No-Hitter For Second In Row

Sensational Paul Tapia pitched another no-hit, no-run victory Saturday, while his equally sensational teammates piled up four runs to wallop Millbrae and win the Peninsula Junior league northern division basebal championship for the second straight year.

The Rockets will now meet the winner of the southern division in a two-out-of three elimination tournament to determine the San Mateo county champion.

Saturday's 4-0 victory made it five in a row this season for the Rockets and an even dozen over a two-year period in the Peninsula league, during which the Rockets have never lost a game, including the playoffs, which they captured in two straight last year.

Second No-Hitter

Fourteen-year-old Tapia registered his second no-hitter in as many outings Saturday and set down 14 batters via the strikeout route. The previous game, July 23, Tapia fashioned a 10-inning, no-hit, no-run game and struck out 23 batsmen.

In his other two performances this season, Tapia threw a one-hitter and a two-hitter.

Saturday's strikeouts brought to 63 the number of batters he has fanned in four games. The Millbrae club hit only one ball out of the infield Saturday.

The Rockets sewed up the victory in the bottom half of the third when they collected two runs on as many hits. Ed Berg opened the inning with a walk and stole second while Jack Bautista was striking out.

Scores Berg

Gordy Tydingco, who had singled in his previous trip to the plate, delivered a clutch single into left center to score Berg from second. Sonny Martinez struck out with Tydingco pilfering second. Tapia further contributed to his own victory by smashing a long line drive down the left field line which tallied Tydingco and put the Rockets out in front, 2-0.

The third tally was added in the fourth when, with one man down, Pete Garcia doubled into left-center for the only multiple base blow of the afternoon. Ross Holmgren followed with a walk. A double steal was successfully executed and both runners advanced. An attempted cut-off to nab Holmgren off second found Garcia scampering home with a stolen run.

Final Tally

The final score was made in the fifth when Gerry Kennedy singled, stole second and scored after Jack Bautista and Tydingco grounded out.

The phenomenal Rocket team has been coached by John Belforte, Daly City recreation department worker.

The Rockets are also competing in the Daly City Junior league and are currently leading the circuit with five wins, no losses. Entry in the Daly City league was cause for official protest of the Rockets win over San Bruno recently. (See story adjacent column.)

WILL WITHDRAW DC TEAMS, REC HEAD THREATENS

Calling on an obscure ruling passed at an unpublicized meeting of the league board of directors, San Bruno's baseball club has protested their July 23, 1-0 loss to Westlake Rockets, who annexed in the Peninsula Junior league championship Saturday, finishing the season undefeated.

The San Bruno manager protested his team's loss, claiming that the Rockets, in competing in two leagues, were violating a recently-passed league ruling. The Rockets are also entered in the Daly City recreation department's league. The league's board of directors upheld San Bruno's protest.

Will Withdraw

The San Bruno action was termed a "win at any cost" maneuver by Daly City Recreation Director James Mason, who said, "Unless the decision of the board is reversed and the Northern Division championship awarded to the Rockets, I will find it necessary to withdraw Daly City teams from any further county leagues or tournaments. I cannot abide by a decision that will harm so many boys."

Mason said the boys of the San Bruno team "will not take any great pride in winning the championship in such a manner."

Mason's refusal to abide by the board of director's decision was based on the grounds that it was, "improperly handled and does not conform with rule 17 of the Junior Baseball league.." The recreation director maintains that the championship of the Rockets was won in conformance with the league rules.

Gives Facts

Mason gave the following facts to substantiate his decision:

1. All of the rules sent to us have been carefully read and followed.

2. The rule change in question was passed without our knowledge and we were not informed of the change.

3. Rule 17 states that "the manager of the opposing team shall be notified of the protest." This was not done.

Mason said he was writing Ed Davenport, league commissioner, and informing him of his stand. Mason said Davenport promised he would call in league directors again for a reviewal of their decision.

Brisbane B Club Leads Teen Cage

The league-leading Brisbane "B's" overcame a six point half time deficit to edge a hustling Sharp Park five, 29-24, in a Teen Age Basketball league contest played this week at the community center.

The Sharp Park club, currently in second place, mauled the undefeated Brisbaners unmercifully in the games opening quarter as they ran up an early 12-6 lead. Little Bob Walsh and Jim Caldwell lead the Sharp Park uprising with a pair of field goals apiece, while forward Simmons and captain Al Dye hit a bucket apiece. Ron Lewis' two 20-footers and Puzzy Firth's lay in enabled the Brisbane quintet to remain within range during the period.

In the second quarter both clubs battled to a stand still as Simmons and Walsh combined to give Sharp Park a pair of field goals and Ryan and Lewis hit successive jump shots for the Brisbaners.

After the intermission the league leaders, with captain Gary Ryan leading the way, overpowered the Coastsiders to tie up the ball game. During the Brisbane outburst Ryan accounted for 8 big points with 4 field goals.

With the score evened up going into the final period of play the Brisbane five, capitalizing on their backboard control, sprung Firth loose for a two point advantage. Sharp Park mainstay Bob Walsh retaliated immediately wtih a two pointer of his own to knot the score once more. Neither team could gain ground during the next five minutes of play but with a minute 30 seconds Firth again broke through the Sharp Park defense for a basket. Throwing caution to the wind in an effort to make up the deficit, the Coastsiders once more fell prey to the well executed Brisbane fast break as Firth charged in for his third consecutive lay up in the final two points of the contest.

The Brisbane victory was their sixth in as many starts and literally cinches the "B" division title. Sharp Park, who remains in second place despite the lose, has a 4 and 2 record.

Sharp Park was unable to muster an "A" team, thereby crediting the Brisbane unlimiteds with a default victory. Holding down second place behind the league-leading Lincoln Park team, the Brisbaners now have a 4 win 2 loss record in the "A" division.

Tuesday nights contest found the Daly City "B's" lacking the necessary 5 players for a regulation game. Sharp Park was awarded the game by defeaut.
